

MERCER COUNTY WARMLINE

Sometimes you need
to hear from someone who's walked a mile
in your shoes.

WARMLINE

Free and Confidential

When life is overwhelming, and
you don't know which
way to turn, it's nice to hear a nonjudgmental voice.

Warmline is a service that provides information, support, encouragement, and referral to individuals living with mental illness or substance abuse issues in Mercer County. This service is through The Community Counseling Center of Mercer County and The Behavioral Health Commission of Mercer. The peer support team is there to listen to your concerns.

HOURS

Friday 5 p.m. — 7 p.m.
Saturday 5 p.m. — 7 p.m.
Sunday 5 p.m. — 7 p.m.

The Warmline staff are not therapists or counselors. They are here to listen to your concerns and are happy to share the names and phone number of service providers, at your request. In an emergency you should still call 911 or the Crisis Lines.
